HISTORICAL NOTES.

The settlement of the town of Chelsea was begun in the year 1784 by Samuel Moore, Thomas Moore and Asa Bond, with their families, all coming from Winchester, N. H. Among the early settlers there were not a few men and women of religious convictions and character. Eminent among these were Asa Bond, Samuel Linkon,* Enos Smith and Ivory Douglass. The Congregational church, the first in town, was organized April 10th, 1789, in presence of Rev. Messrs. Isaiah Potter of Lebanon, N. H., Asa Burton of Thetford and Stephen Fuller of Vershire, Mr. Fuller serving as moderator. The records leave us in the dark as to the number of persons thus formed into a church, the place where this meeting was held, and all other circumstances connected with it; tradition also is lacking, and it is to be feared that these facts are irrecoverably lost. The names of twenty-nine persons are preserved, who probably became members of the church before the settlement of Rev. Mr. Thompson, but this list is undoubtedly imperfect, and there may be many omissions which cannot now be supplied. It should also be said that the list of admissions is probably more or less incomplete up to about 1826.

For the first ten years of the church's history there was no settled pastor. There was occasional preaching, and in the absence of a minister sermons were read by some of the laymen, most frequently, it would appear, by Dea. Linkon. Among those who are known to have preached here during this time is Rev. James Hobart, then a theological student with Rev. Mr. Burton of Thetford, and subsequently pastor at Berlin. Dr. Abial Jones also, who, before coming to Chelsea, had studied theology and been licensed to preach, is said to have officiated occasionally.

For several years the meetings were held in various parts of the town, in houses, school-houses and barns. One frequent place of meeting was the barn of Asa Bond, on the farm now occupied by N. G. Moore. In 1796 the first court-house was built, standing on the present site of E. R. Hyde & Co.'s store, and thenceforth the meetings for public worship were held there. In 1811 a society of the denomination called Christians was formed here, and a dispute arose concerning the occupancy of the court-house, as a result of which the Congregational society gave up the use of that building and decided to build a church. Work was begun on the present building October 4th, 1811; it was completed in June, 1813, and dedicated September 1st, 1813. Before its completion meetings were held in the hall of the lower hotel, situated where L. G. Hinckley's house now stands, and kept by Elihu Hyde, Sr. In 1848 the building was repaired and remodeled, the galleries being taken down and the house divided into two stories, the upper being taken for the audience room. Extensive repairs and improvements were also made in 1874.

The ecclesiastical society was formed in 1799. According to the law then existing, the expenses for the support of preaching were met by a tax raised on the grand list of all the inhabitants of the town, only those being exempt who could present certificates that they contributed to the support of some other church. This law was repealed in 1807, about which time the "Voluntary Congregational Society" was formed, which now exists.

The society was formed with the intention of procuring a pastor, and Rev. Lathrop Thompson was soon called to the pastorate of the church and society, and was installed November 20, 1799, in the court-house. He was to receive $334 per annum, "payable in wheat, rye or Indian corn, at cash price, upon the first day of January, annually." He remained pastor between five and six years, when it was deemed best on both sides to sever his relations with the society, owing to a lack of harmony between himself and his congregation. He seems to have been a sound doctrinal preacher, very rigid and conservative, and a zealous believer in discipline.

The additions to the church during Mr. Thompson's residence here were few, but a change soon took place in the pastorate of his successor, Rev. Calvin Noble, who was ordained pastor in 1807. During his pastorate, which was terminated by his death, in 1834, there were three powerful revivals, in 1809, 1819 and 1831, and many other seasons of special religious interest. Mr. Noble was universally esteemed by his people, and no one can now tell how much the subsequent prosperity of this church is due to his wise and zealous care. Of the later pastors mention need not be made here.

The origin and early history of meetings for conference and prayer can with difficulty be traced. A vote is recorded under date of March 28, 1800, "That the church will set up and attend religious conferences in rotation on the first Thursday in every month." This seems to be the origin of the monthly church meeting. Early in Mr. Noble's pastorate prayer meetings were held at noon, between the services, the men meeting at the pastor's and the women in the jail-house, then occupied by Harry Hale.

The music employed in the church services was for many years entirely vocal. Subsequently a bass viol was introduced and other similar instruments, forming a considerable orchestra. A melodeon was afterwards substituted, and about 1861 an organ was purchased, which was replaced by the present organ in 1874.

In the summer of 1816 the first Sunday-school was held, in the school-house in District No. 10. During the next summer it was held in the church at noon, and has since continued without interruption.

During the first two pastorates the society did not own a parsonage. Rev. Mr. Thompson built the house now occupied by Orcutt Bixby, and resided there, as did also Mr. Noble. Soon after Mr. Buckham came, the house in which Mrs. Clara Skinner now lives was purchased for a parsonage, and was so used until 1866, when it was sold and the present one purchased.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES

PASTORS OF THE CHURCH.

Lathrop Thompson, the son of Hezekiah and Hannah (Thompson) Thompson, was born at Farmington, Ct., September 3, 1760. His father early removed to Windsor, Vt., and was a deacon of the Congregational church there. He graduated at Dartmouth College in 1786, and studied theology with Rev. Dr. Asa Burton of Thetford, Vt., being his first theological student. He was ordained pastor at Sharon, Vt., December 3, 1788, and was dismissed March 21, 1793; was then acting pastor at South Britain, Ct., from May 1796, two years. He was installed over the church at Chelsea, November 20, 1799, and was dismissed April 29, 1805. He was installed May 2, 1810, at Cutchogue, Long Island, and after his dismissal there, August 29, 1826, preached at different places for brief periods, and finally returned to Chelsea, passing the last years of his life with his son-in-law, his successor in the pastorate here. He was four times married, but left only one child. He died at Chelsea, July 19, 1843.

Calvin Noble, the son of Morgan and Patience (Averill) Noble, was born at New Milford, Ct., January 9, 1777. His father was a captain in the revolutionary army, and his mother was a sister of the mother of Rev. Dr. Jeremiah Day, president of Yale College. He graduated at Middlebury College in 1805, and studied theology with Rev. Dr. Asa Burton of Thetford. He was licensed to preach by the Orange Association, at Peacham, January 8, 1806, and after preaching some time as a home missionary began preaching at Chelsea in March, 1807, and was ordained pastor September 7, 1807, Rev. Dr. Burton preaching the sermon. He remained pastor of this church twenty-seven years, until his death, April 20, 1834. He left several children, one of whom, Calvin D., entered the ministry, and was pastor at Rochester and Springfield.

James Buckham, the son of Robert and Ellen (Todd) Buckham, was born at Yetholm, near Kelso, Scotland, January 4, 1795. He was educated at the parish schools of his native place, and at Wymondley, Hertfordshire, and Rotherham Seminary, Yorkshire. He was licensed to preach by the committee of Rotherham Seminary in June, 1818, and was ordained at Hinckley, Leicestershire, April 1824. In 1834 he came to America, began preaching at Chelsea, November 9, 1834, and was installed over the church February 25, 1835, Rev. Dr. Nathan Lord, president of Dartmouth College, preaching the sermon; he was dismissed from this charge February 16, 1841. He supplied at Sorel, Que., 1845–7, at Winooski, Vt., 1847–50, and at Milton Falls, Vt., 1850–1, and was installed at Phillipsburgh, Que., in 1851. From November 1856, to June 1863, he supplied at Fairfield, Vt. He was principal of Ellington Seminary, Ct., in 1844–5, and taught in various places where he preached. He now resides at Burlington, Vt., with his son, M. H. Buckham, president of the University of Vermont.

Benjamin Ball Newton, the son of Josiah and Lydia (Ball) Newton, was born at St. Albans, Vt., July 29, 1808. He fitted for college at St. Albans Academy and graduated at the University of Vermont in 1831. He was principal of Bennington Academy one year, and then studied theology at Andover, graduating in 1835. He began preaching at Plattsburgh, N. Y., in the spring of 1836, and was ordained pastor of the Presbyterian church there July 27, 1836, being dismissed in 1839; he was then a home missionary in Pennsylvania two or three years. He was extended a call by this church October 14, 1841, and probably began preaching here at once; he was installed June 28, 1842, Prof. C. B. Haddock of Dartmouth College preaching the sermon, and dismissed March 11, 1846. He then resided at St. Albans for a number of years, and represented St. Albans in the legislature of 1849. In 1855 he removed to Kansas, and assisted in making it a free state. Late in life he connected himself with the Episcopal church, and was admitted to deacon's orders by Bishop Potter of New York, January 11, 1867. He was for two years rector of St. James's Church, Woodstock, Vt., and subsequently assistant rector of the Church of the Holy Trinity Brooklyn, N. Y. He died in Brooklyn, January 17, 1875.

Thomas Swan Hubbard, the son of Samuel and Elizabeth (Swan) Hubbard, was born at Franklin, Vt., Dec. 20, 1811. He fitted for college at St. Albans Academy, and graduated at Middlebury College in 1834 and Andover Seminary in 1838. He was ordained at Stockbridge, Vt., June 18, 1839, and installed over the church there, January 1840, being dismissed June 1846. He began to preach at Chelsea in January, 1847, was installed February 13, 1849, Prof. C. B. Haddock of Dartmouth College preaching the sermon, and dismissed August 31, 1854. He then supplied at Rochester and Stockbridge one year, and another year at Stockbridge alone, then at Cabot two years from March 1857, at Bethel, 1859–62, and at Dunton, Ill. (Presbyterian), two years from May 1862. He has since been located at Pittsfield and Stockbridge, Vt.

James Clay Houghton, the son of William and Marilla (Clay) Houghton, was born at Lyndon, Vt., May 13, 1810

His early life, from five to twenty years of age, was spent with his maternal grandfather at Putney, Vt.; he then fitted for college at the academy at Bradford, where his parents resided for a few years, and entered Amherst College in 1833. At the close of the fall term of 1836, he left Amherst for Dartmouth, and graduated there in 1837. He graduated at the Theological Institute of Connecticut, East Windsor, in 1840, having been licensed to preach by the Windham (Ct.) Association, August 28, 1839. He was ordained pastor at Storrsville, Mass., December 22, 1840, and dismissed April 27, 1843. He then supplied two years at Hartland, Ct., and at Granby, Ct., from June 1845, to April 1847; he was then installed at Middle Haddam, Ct., September 1847, and was dismissed February 1851, in the next December being installed at New Hartford, Ct. He was dismissed from this charge in February 1854, and supplied at South Wilbraham, Mass., 1854–6. He was acting pastor at Chelsea from February 1, 1857, to April 1, 1865, declining installation. In 1865–6 he supplied the church at Royalton during the illness of the pastor, and was one year, from September 1868, at Middletown, Vt. An affection of the throat prevented further ministerial labor, and he removed to Burlington and engaged in insurance business. In 1877 he was disabled by a paralytic stroke, and went to reside with a son at Montpelier, where he died April 29, 1880.

Salem Marsh Plimpton was born at Sturbridge, Mass., April 27, 1820. He at first learned the shoemaker's trade, but on being converted, commenced preparation for the ministry. He fitted for college at Monson (Mass.) Academy, and graduated at Amherst College in 1846, and at Andover in 1849. He was licensed to preach by the Brookfield (Mass.) Association in April, 1849, and supplied at Fayetteville, Vt., during 1850. He was ordained pastor at Wells River, Vt., May 8, 1851, and dismissed April 30, 1861. From September 1861, to September 1862, he was chaplain of the Fourth Vt. Vols., then supplied the North Church, St. Johnsbury, during the pastor's absence as chaplain of a nine months regiment. Then he was for a time supply at East Douglass, Mass., and came to Chelsea, January 1, 1866, remaing acting pastor of the church until his death, Sept. 14, 1866.

William Albert James, the son of William and Abby Watson (Davis) James, was born at Pomfret, Ct., March 4, 1833. Most of his early life was spent at Danielsonville, Ct. He fitted for college at Phillips Academy, Andover, Mass., and graduated at Williams College in 1862, and at Union Theological Seminary in 1865. He was licensed to preach by the Congregational Association of New York and Brooklyn, April 5, 1865. He preached nine months at Killingworth, Ct.; was ordained over the Chelsea church May 1, 1867, and dismissed December 29, 1869. He then labored three or four years at North Woodstock, Ct., and about four years at Marysville, Ohio. Went then to Marshall, Mich., but during his second year of service there was compelled by ill health to give up preaching, and was for more than a year at Minneapolis, Minn., without charge. In the latter part of 1881 he went to Fort Benton, Montana, to undertake the work of organizing the first Congregational church in that territory. Ill health compelled him to give up work here in a few months, and he returned to Minneapolis, where he now is.

Edward Elisha Herrick, the son of Elisha and Samantha (Martin) Herrick, was born at Randolph, Vt., December 4, 1835. He fitted for college at West Randolph Academy, and graduated at the University of Vermont in 1856. He was principal of Bradford Academy, 1856–8, and West Randolph Academy, 1858–9. He entered Andover Seminary in 1859, leaving in the spring of 1862. He was then in charge of Lincoln (Mass.) high school during the spring, and in May went to South Merrimack, N. H., and preached there some weeks. He enlisted as private in the 15th Vt. Vols., September 3, 1862, was elected Second Lieutenant, September 11, 1862, appointed First Lieutenant, January 9, 1863, and mustered out August 5, 1863. Soon after he began preaching at Rochester, Vt., and was ordained there February 24, 1864, not being installed pastor. He left January 1, 1866, and supplied at Colchester till January 1869, and at Wilmington from May 1869 to May 1870. He began preaching to this church the first Sunday in May 1870, and was installed pastor February 14, 1871, Rev. Dr. William H. Lord of Montpelier preaching the sermon.

MANUAL OF THE CHURCH.

NAME.

This Church shall be called the Congregational Church of Chelsea, Vt.

CONFESSION AND COVENANT.

Dearly beloved: Drawing near to God with a sincere heart, having faith in Him and a true repentance for sin, and desiring to make a confession of your faith in Christ, and to unite with this church, you will now join with us in the following

CONFESSION:

I believe in God, the Father, Maker of all things; in His only begotten Son, Jesus Christ, our Redeemer and King; in the Holy Ghost, the Comforter, ever present in the church to renew and sanctify the soul.

I believe in the common sinfulness of our race; in the death of Jesus Christ for our sins; in His resurrection from the dead, ascension, mediation and intercessions; in His coming again to judge the quick and dead, and to receive His followers to the glory of His kingdom.

I believe in the Holy Scriptures as the word of God; in the church, the body of Christ; in the ministry of the Word; in the sacraments of Baptism and the Lord's Supper; in the communion of the saints; in the forgiveness of sins, in the regeneration of the soul during this life of probation; in the resurrection of the body, and in the life everlasting.

Address to those Baptized in Infancy.

Do you, who in infancy were dedicated to God by your believing parents in the ordinance of baptism, hereby declare your personal acceptance of the same, and your belief that the regeneration of the soul has been wrought within you by the Holy Spirit?

Address to those who are to be Baptized.

You, who believe that your hearts have been renewed by the Holy Spirit and who have never received the outward seal of the covenant, will now, upon this profession of your faith, receive the ordinance of baptism.

Baptism.

You will now enter into

COVENANT.

You do now, in the presence of God and before His holy angels and this assembly, consecrate yourself to God, the Father, as your chief good; to the Son of God, relying on Him as the Prophet, Priest and King of your salvation, and to the Holy Spirit as your Teacher, Guide and Comforter.

You also promise to walk with us as a Church of Christ, in due submission to and attendance upon all the ordinances and services of the Church, that by the help of the Holy Spirit you may adorn your profession by a holy and fruitful life.

The Church will Rise.

We, then, give you our Christian Welcome. We promise to you the watchful care, kindness and love of the Christian household. We welcome you to a common work, self-denial and consecration. We will strive with you for purity of heart, for holiness of life, for the progress of the Redeemer's cause, if by any means we may attain to the resurrection of the dead and the rewards of the Kingdom of Christ.

Then the Pastor may give one or both of the following Benedictions.

Now unto Him who is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of His glory, with exceeding joy; to the only true God, our Saviour, be glory in the church, both now and forever. Amen.

The Lord bless you and keep you; the Lord make His face to shine upon you, and be gracious unto you; the Lord lift up his countenance upon you and give you peace. Amen.

Then shall be said or sung the doxology.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be; world without end. Amen.

The confession is to be repeated audibly by the church with the pastor at every communion service, whether new members are received or not.

ARTICLES OF FAITH.

While in admitting members we use a shorter form of confession, we expect our pastor and deacons will subscribe the following

ARTICLES OF FAITH.

Adopted Sept. 3, 1831. Amended March 30, 1882.

1. We believe: That there is one God, infinitely perfect; the Creator, Preserver and Governor of all things; the self-existent, independent and immutable Fountain of good; and that He exists mysteriously in three persons, the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost, who are the same in substance and equal in all perfections.

Isa. xlii. 8.—"I am the Lord; that is my name: and my glory will I not give to another."

1 Cor. viii. 4.—"There is none other God but one."

Deut. xxxii. 4.—"A God of truth and without iniquity, just and right is he."

Col. ii. 3.—"In whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge."

John i. 3.—"All things were made by him; and without him was not anything made that was made."

Neh. ix. 6.—"Thou hast made heaven, the heaven of heavens, with all their host, the earth, and all things that are therein, the seas, and all that is therein, and thou preservest them all."

John x. 30.—"I and my Father are one."

Matt. xxviii. 19.—"Go ye therefore and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost."

2. We believe: That the Scriptures of the Old and New Testament are the Word of God, and are the only rule of faith and practice.

Heb. i. 1, 2.—"God who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets, hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son."

2. Tim. iii. 16, 17.—"All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works."

2 Peter i. 21.—"For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost."

Psalm cxix. 105.—"Thy word is a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path."

Isa. viii. 20.—"To the law and to the testimony: if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them."

3. We believe: That our first parents were made perfectly holy, but, by disobedience, fell from the state in which they were created; in consequence of which all their posterity are, by nature, destitute of holiness, alienated from God, and subject to his just condemnation.

Gen. i. 26, 27.—"And God said, 'Let us make man in our image, after our likeness,' so God created man in his own image; in the image of God created he him."

Eccl. vii. 29.—"God hath made man upright; but they have sought out many inventions."

Gen. ii. 16, 17.—"And the Lord God commanded the man, saying, Of every tree of the garden thou mayest freely eat: But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest of it thou shalt surely die."

Gen. iii. 6.—"And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food," &c., "she took of the fruit thereof and did eat; and gave unto her husband with her, and he did eat."

Rom. v. 12.—"By one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men; for that all have sinned."

Job xiv. 4.—"Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean? not one."

Rom. viii. 7.—"The carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be."

4. We believe: That GOD, in His infinite and sovereign mercy has provided a Saviour, even JESUS CHRIST, His dearly beloved Son, who, having become incarnate, by His own obedience honored the law, and by his death made a complete atonement for sin; so that all who believe in Him obtain forgiveness of their sins and a sure title to eternal life.

John iii. 16.—"For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth on him should not perish but have everlasting life."

Matt. i. 21.—"And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins."

Matt. xviii. 11.—"For the Son of man is come to save that which was lost."

Isa. liii. 5.—"But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities," &c.,—see the whole chapter.

1 Cor. vi. 20.—"For ye are bought with a price," &c.

1 Tim. iii. 16.—"Without controversy, great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh."

1 Tim. ii. 5, 6.—"For there is one God, and one Mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus; Who gave himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time."

1 John ii. 2.—"He is the propitiation for our sins, and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world."

John iii. 36.—"He that believeth on the Son, hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son, shall not see life, but the wrath of God abideth on him."

5. We believe: That salvation is freely offered to all; but that all mankind are naturally so depraved, and such enemies to GOD and the Saviour, that, although they can at any time accept this offer, yet no one will accept it, until God, according to his eternal purpose, draws him to repentance and faith in Christ by the influence of the Holy Spirit.

Rev. xxii. 17.—"And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take of the water of life freely." See, also, Luke xiv. 16, 24.

Isa. xlv. 22.—"Look unto me, and be ye saved, all ye ends of the earth; for I am God, and there is none else."

Isa. lv. 1.—"Ho! every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money, come ye, buy and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price."

John iii. 19, 20.—"And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. For every one that doeth evil, hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved."

John vi. 44, 45.—"No man can come unto me, except the Father draw him. It is written in the prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. Every man, therefore, that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh to me."

John v. 40.—"Ye will not come unto me that ye might have life."

Ps. cx. 3.—"Thy people shall be willing in the day of thy power."

John iii. 5.—"Except a man be born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God."

Titus iii. 5.—"Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration and renewing of the Holy Ghost."

Eph. ii. 9, 10.—"Not of works, lest any man should boast. For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them."

Eph. i. 4.—"According as he hath chosen us in him, before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him, in love."

Rom. viii. 28.—"And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God; to them who are the called according to his purpose."

Rom. ix. 11.—"That the purpose of God, according to election, might stand, not of works, but of him that calleth."

6. We believe: That all true believers persevere in faith and holiness, being kept by the power of God, through faith, unto salvation, and that obedience to the law of God is the fruit and the evidence of their faith.

John x. 27–29.—"My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me; And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any one pluck them out of my hand. My Father which gave them me is greater than all; and no one is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand."

Rom. viii. 38, 39.—"For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord."

Phil. i. 6.—"Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ."

1 Peter i. 5.—"Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time."

Matt. xxii. 37, 40.—"Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it: Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets."

Gal. v. 22, 24.—"But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance: against such there is no law. And they that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts."

7. We believe that CHRIST has a visible Church in the world, to which all true believers in Him, and they only, should belong.

Eph. v. 25.—"Christ loved the church and gave himself for it."

Matt. xvi. 18.—"Upon this rock I will build my church: and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it."

Acts ii. 47.—"And the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved."

2 Cor. vi. 17.—"Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you."

Ps. l. 16.—"But unto the wicked, God saith, What hast thou to do to declare my statutes, or that thou shouldest take my covenant in thy mouth."

8. We believe that the Sacraments of the Christian Church are Baptism and the Lord's Supper; that all visible believers and their households, and these only, should receive Baptism, and that those who have confessed their faith and made a covenant with God through Baptism, and they only, should partake of the Lord's Supper.

Matt. xxviii. 19.—"Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost."

Mark xvi. 16.—"He that believeth and is baptized, shall be saved."

Matt. xxvi. 26, 27, 28.—"And as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat: this is my body. And He took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it; for this is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins."

HOUSEHOLD BAPTISM.

Gen. xvii. 5, 7, 10, 11.—"Thy name shall be Abraham; for a father of many nations have I made thee. And I will establish my covenant between me and thee, and thy seed after thee, in their generations, for an everlasting covenant; to be a God unto thee, and to thy seed after thee. Every man-child among you shall be circumcised. And it shall be a token of the covenant betwixt me and you."

Rom. iv. 11.—"And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had yet being uncircumcised: that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised, that righteousness might be imputed unto them also."

Gal. iii. 7, 9, 13, 14.—"Know ye therefore, that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham. So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham. Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law: that the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ." 28, 29.—"There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus. And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise."

Acts ii. 39.—"For the promise is unto you, and to your children."

Isa. lxv. 23.—"For they are the seed of the blessed of the Lord, and their offspring with them."

1 Cor. vii. 14.—"For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband: else were your children unclean; but now are they holy."

Acts xvi. 15, 33.—"And when she was baptized and her household." "And was baptized, he and all his, straightway."

Matt. xix. 14.—"Suffer little children and forbid them not to come unto me, for of such is the kingdom of heaven."

9. We believe that there will be a general resurrection of the bodies, both of the just and of the unjust; that all mankind must one day stand before the judgment-seat of Christ, to receive a just and final sentence of retribution, according to the deeds done in the body; and, at that day of judgment, that the state of all will be unalterably fixed; and that the punishment of the wicked and the happiness of the righteous will be endless.

John v. 28, 29.—"Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming in the which all that are in their graves shall hear his voice, and shall come forth; they that have done good unto the resurrection of life, and they that have done evil unto the resurrection of damnation."

Acts xxiv. 15.—"There shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and the unjust."

2 Cor. v. 10.—"For we must all appear before the judgment-seat of Christ: that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad."

2. Thes. i. 7-10.—"When the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven, with his mighty angels, in flaming fire, taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ; who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord and from the glory of his power; when he shall come to be glorified in his saints, and to be admired in all them that believe, in that day."

Matt. xxv. 34.—"Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world." Verse 41.—"Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels." Verse 46.—"And these shall go away into everlasting punishment; but the righteous into life eternal."

PRINCIPLES AND STANDING RULES.

I. GOVERNMENT.

1. The government of this church is vested exclusively in the body of believers who compose it, and whose majority vote is final. It acknowledges the Lord Jesus Christ as its Supreme Head, and receives the Scriptures as its only infallible guide in matters of Truth, Order and Discipline.

2. While this church is independent of all other ecclesiastical bodies and will control its internal affairs according to its understanding of God's Word, it yet recognizes the obligations and the privileges of the communion of churches, and will cordially extend to other churches holding a common faith, and receive from them, that fellowship, advice and assistance which the law of Christ requires.

II. MEMBERSHIP.

1. The qualifications for membership are credible evidence of repentance for sin, and faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, and assent to the Confession of Faith and Covenant of this church.

2. Candidates for admission to this church by profession of faith may be examined by the Standing Committee, or, if the church shall so direct, by the whole church, at any regular meeting; and when such candidates are approved by vote of the church they shall be propounded at least one week before the Communion Sabbath, and shall become members in full by giving public assent to our Confession of Faith and Covenant.

3. Members of other churches, in fellowship with this, will be received into membership by vote of the church, on presenting proper letters of dismission and recommendation and by giving assent to our Confession of Faith and Covenant.

4. Members of evangelical churches, in good and regular standing, coming to reside here, are cordially invited to commune with us till they can conveniently obtain letters. If, however, more than a year elapses before they present letters, a reasonable excuse for such delay will be expected before they are received by us.

5. Members of this church, in good and regular standing, wishing to remove their connection from this to another church in fellowship with this, shall, at their request, be entitled to, and shall receive, by vote of the church, letters of dismission and recommendation, but such letters shall be valid for only one year from the time they were given, and the letters shall so state.

6. When members of this church shall remove their residence to the vicinity of other evangelical churches, they shall take letters from this church within one year after such removal. Should any member, so removing, fail to observe this rule, it shall be the duty of the clerk to send such member a copy of it, requesting compliance therewith. If, after waiting a reasonable time, no notice is taken of this request, the clerk shall report the fact to the church at its next annual meeting, and such person shall not be entitled to a letter in the usual form without satisfactory explanation.

7. On the recommendation of the Standing Committee the church shall, from time to time, revise its roll by dropping the names of absentees who have not been heard from for three years, or who have neglected or refused to take letters to other churches; also the names of those members who may have joined other churches without applying for letters. No name shall be so dropped except by vote of the church, and the reason shall be stated in the record.

III. OFFICERS.

The officers of this church shall be—

1. A Pastor, who shall have control of the pulpit and the exercises of public worship; shall preach the Word; administer the sacraments; preside in meetings of the church, and take a spiritual oversight of the flock.

2. Two or more Deacons, who shall provide for and aid the pastor in the administration of the Lord's Supper; have charge of the communion service; take the oversight of poor members needing pecuniary relief; assist the pastor in the spiritual care of the congregation, and in his absence preside at meetings of the church.

3. A Clerk, who shall make a faithful record of all the business transacted by the church; keep a register of the church members, with the date and manner of their reception and removal; the names of all persons baptized, whether infants or adults; issue letters of dismission when voted by the church; and at the annual meeting submit a written statement of the whole number of members, resident and non-resident, the admissions, deaths, removals and baptisms during the year past, and also the names of such members as having been absent for more than a year, and having been reminded of our rules, have neglected to take letters of dismission. The clerk shall record all the reports submitted at the annual meeting and call special business meetings of the church.

4. A Standing Committee, consisting of the pastor and deacons, with such other members (not exceeding four) as may be annually chosen, to consult and advise in regard to church work; examine candidates for membership and recommend those whom they approve to the church; inquire into all cases of scandal or public offence by members of the church which may come to their knowledge, by complaint or otherwise, and seek by all means in their power to promote the purity, growth and efficiency of the church. In especially authorizing a standing committee to perform these duties it is not intended to absolve the other members from their obligations to work for Christ or to reprove, watch over and admonish each other.

5. A Treasurer, who shall see that the public collections, authorized by the church for benevolent objects, are taken up at the right time. He shall receive and properly forward the sums so collected, and submit a written statement at the annual meeting of the amount collected and the disposition made of it.

6. A Superintendent and an assistant Superintendent of the Sabbath-school, who shall have a general oversight of the school, secure proper teachers for the classes, and with the teachers labor for the increase and profitableness of the school, keep a record of the number of classes and the attendance of teachers and pupils, and of the collections in money taken up, and at the annual meeting of the school submit a written report of its condition and needs. The officers of the Sabbath-school shall be elected by the members of the school at the last session of the school for each year.

7. A Chorister and an assistant Chorister, who shall lead the singing on the Sabbath, at funerals, and at all religious meetings as far as practicable. The officers of the choir shall be elected by the members of the choir on the last Tuesday of each year.

IV. MEETINGS.

1. It is the duty of all members, unless providentially prevented, to attend the regular meetings of the church and such other meetings as may be appointed by special vote.

2. Meetings for public worship and the preaching of the gospel and for the Sabbath School service shall be held on the Sabbath; the number and order of these services shall be arranged as the church may direct.

3. The sacrament of the Lord's supper shall usually be administered on the first Sabbath of January, March, May, July, September and November. The preparatory service shall be held on the Thursday preceding, unless otherwise ordered.

4. There shall be a prayer and conference meeting on Tuesday evening of each week. On the Thursday afternoon preceding the first Sabbath in each month there shall be a prayer and conference meeting, unless the pastor prefers to give a lecture for the preparatory service before the sacrament.

5. There shall be a missionary meeting on the first Sabbath of each month.

6. There shall be an annual business meeting of the church on the Thursday next preceding the first Sabbath of January, either in place of or at the close of the preparatory lecture.

The order of business at this annual meeting shall be :—

1. Prayer.
2. Report of Deacons.
3. Report of Treasurer.
4. Report of Clerk.
5. Report of Standing Committee.
6. Election of Treasurer.
7. Election of Clerk.
8. Election of Standing Committee.
9. Determining the objects for which collections shall be taken during the ensuing year.
10. Any other business.

7. Special business meetings may be called at the discretion of the standing committee or on application to the clerk in writing of five members. Public notice of all such meetings shall be given by the pastor or clerk on the Sabbath preceding.

8. All meetings of the standing committee for the examination of candidates shall be announced from the pulpit on the Sabbath preceding. Any member of the church who desires may be present.

V. COLLECTIONS.

A collection shall be taken in the church on the Sabbath, according to some schedule to be adopted by vote of the church at its annual meeting for the year ensuing. Besides this, special collections may be taken at the discretion of the pastor and deacons, for any object of Christian benevolence.

VI. DISCIPLINE.

1. In all cases of discipline for alleged personal or private offences, the directions of our Saviour in 18th of Matthew shall be the rule of proceeding.

2. In all cases of public offence or when members are living in the open and continued violation of any covenant obligation, or so as to bring reproach on the Christian name, it shall be the duty of the standing committee, when possible, by private conference to reclaim the offender; but if they fail of this, they shall, if in their opinion the purity of the church and the honor of Christ require it, report the facts to the church with the measures, which, in their judgment, should be adopted.

3. When any member is brought before the church for trial by the standing committee or any other person, for an alleged offence, he shall previously be furnished with a written statement of the charges preferred against him, the names of the witnesses and of the time and place of trial, and no vote of suspension, censure or withdrawal of fellowship shall be passed except after the accused member has had an ample opportunity for defence, and such vote shall not be valid except it be approved by two-thirds of the members present at a regular meeting.

4. If any person shall withdraw from our communion for any reason appertaining solely to himself or shall habitually and intentionally absent himself from the sacrament of the Lord's Supper or other public services, or shall refuse to aid according to his means, in the support of public worship, and after suitable private efforts to reclaim him he shall persist in his wrong course, while guilty of no immorality or other unchristian conduct, the church may, on the recommendation of the standing committee, by vote of two thirds of the members present, declare their withdrawal of fellowship from him till such time as he shall return to the path of duty.

5. Any person from whom fellowship has been withdrawn for immorality or any other cause, may be restored to good standing by vote of the church on evidence of repentance and a satisfactory confession.

VII. RELATION OF CHURCH AND SOCIETY.

1. This church has associated with it an ecclesiastical society, called The Voluntary Congregational Society of Chelsea, which owns and has the care of the house of worship. This society, by mutual understanding with the church, provides for and pays the salary of its pastor, and raises and disburses all funds needful for the support of public worship.

2. Whenever the pulpit is vacant, by the absence or dismission of the pastor, the standing committee, in connection with a committee of the society, shall procure a minister; or, if they choose, they may leave it to the committee of the society to secure the needed supply.

3. In the settlement of a pastor, the church will take the first step in voting a call; after which the society shall be asked to concur in the action of the church, and when a call is given, it shall be by the joint action of the church and society.

4. Persons desiring seats in the church should apply to the committee of the society.

VIII. AMENDMENTS.

These rules or the articles of faith and covenant may be altered or amended at any business meeting of the church, of which public notice with distinct announcement of the proposed business shall have been given on the preceding Sabbath, by a vote of two-thirds of the voting members.

ALPHABETICAL CATALOGUE OF MEMBERS.

The first column gives the name in full as the person was last called while a member of this church, a brace joining the names of husband and wife; in the case of a married woman whose husband was not connected with this church, his name follows hers in brackets; the maiden name of married women is given in parenthesis. The second column gives the date and manner of uniting with the church, p indicating profession, and l letter. In the third column, the star indicates that the person died while a member of this church, and the date is given when it could be ascertained; the name of a place in brackets indicates that the person died at that place; when not otherwise specified, the death is understood to have taken place in Chelsea. Dismissal is indicated by d, the name of the church to which dismissed and the date being given when possible, excommunication by e, and dropping of the name by dr. All places are supposed to be in Vermont and all churches to be Congregational, unless otherwise indicated. An interrogation point indicates doubt.
